POPPY SALES TO START SATURDAY

Funds which enable the American Legion Auxiliary to aid war veterans in distress come largely from the contributions made by those who wear memorial poppies on Poppy Day, Mrs. Russell Elliott, President, the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139, said today as she helped complete preparations for the observance of Poppy Day here May 28.

"The dimes, quarters and dollars dropped into the coin boxes of the American Legion Auxiliary's Poppy Day volunteers are divided two ways," Mrs. Elliott explained. "Half goes to our work for veterans and half to our child welfare work. These funds are available throughout the year for relief of distress among veterans and veterans' children."

"The bulk of the money stays right here in the treasury of our local Auxiliary Unit and is expended locally. We buy the poppies from the State Department of the Auxiliary which has them made by disabled veterans at Gulfport. There is no overhead for promotion or management and, since all our Poppy Day workers are volunteers, every penny contributed goes for the purposes for which it is given."

"Here in Hancock County we have a large number of veterans, the majority of them young men with families of small children. We of the Auxiliary believe that when misfortune overtakes any of these veterans, when the effects of war wounds or illness overcome them, they deserve the help of the community. That is why once each year we ask everyone to contribute to the Auxiliary's poppy funds to aid the disabled while honoring the dead—and help us maintain protection for the men who protected America."

Saturday morning, May 28 American Legion Auxiliary members will be out on the streets of Bay St. Louis selling poppies for the rehabilitation of disabled veterans and their families. All members are urged to help with the project. All those wanting to help with the sale of the poppies are asked to be at "Sunshine" by 8:30 Saturday morning for coffee. After coffee the ladies will proceed with the sale.

Oren J. Cuevas Candidate For Tax Assessor

Oren J. Cuevas has announced his candidacy for Tax Assessor of Hancock County in the Democratic primary election in August.

His official statement to the voters follows:

TO THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY:

In announcing my candidacy for Tax Assessor, I have no promise to make other than running the office to the best of my knowledge and ability and showing no partiality to anyone.

I work at Piazza's Barber Shop 5 1/2 days a week, and will be unable to visit all the citizens of Hancock County in their homes, as I cannot afford to take the time off or hire anyone to

RUSS WINNER IN BEAT 1 RUNOFF

Charles Russ won the special election held in Beat 1 Tuesday, May 24 for a member of the Board of Supervisors from that Beat to replace the late Jos. Jones.

In the run off election Tuesday, Russ won by 55 votes over his opponent, Carl "Mutt" Miller. Russ polled 308 votes to Miller's 251.

The new member of the Board will begin his work with the current Board members immediately.

Manny Hubbard Candidate For Supervisor Beat 5

R. G. "Manny" Hubbard has announced his candidacy for Supervisor of Beat 5 in the August Democratic primary election.

His statement to the voters follows:

Four years ago I promised the people of Hancock County that if elected Supervisor of Beat 5 I would conduct my office with sincerity, dignity and honesty—that my first thought would be "What will best benefit the taxpayers"—and, that having the courage of my convictions, my vote would always go down for what I believed to be right.

I feel that the events of the last four years have proven my sincerity and desire to work for the PEOPLE.

It has not been easy sledding. There were many times I stood alone, fighting for right. How

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Russell have received news from their son, Ronald, who is stationed in Nome, Alaska. Ronald writes that at last the snow there is gone, but the sea is still covered with ice. The weather is warmer, with the present temperature in the high 40's! This is quite an experience for this young man who has lived most of his life in the balmy climate of the Gulf Coast. Ronald is in radio work and will be in Alaska for some time. He'll be delighted to learn that his sister, Hilda, is valedictorian of the senior class at Bay High this year.

was one of the most unusual and delicate seen or eaten at any party in a long time. The cake was shaped in the mold of an old time steam engine and coal car. The "cowcatcher" wheels, cabin and even the tiny engine looking out the window and the coal tender were significant of the "early days" of railroad ing. The cake was in chocolate with a silver "cowcatcher." Almost too pretty to eat? Young Charles didn't think so, and enjoyed it and his birthday to the last minute.

The marriage of Miss Ann Reith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reith of Subiaco, Ark., to Bernard Farr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farr of Bay St. Louis, took place at St. Benedict's Catholic Church in Subiaco at nine o'clock in the morning on April 23.

The Rev. Ralph Bauer officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white wedding gown of nylon tulle and alencon lace, the lace basque designed with long fitted sleeves, drop shoulder line edged in seed pearls and full skirt worn over stiff petticoats. The skirt had wide lace panels in front and back, the latted dipping with the skirt line into a chapel length train. Her illusion veil was secured by a crown of tulle and satin studded with seed pearls and she carried a single orchid encircled with stephanotis from which a shower of satin ribbons streamed.

Miss Mary Reith was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Sally Boerner, Fort Smith, Ark., and Miss Joann Smith of Chickasaw, Ala., were bridesmaids and Rebecca Weners and Theresa Reith, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

The bride's attendants were all dressed alike in champagne colored formal gowns of taffeta and tulle, styled with floor length skirts made in tiers and bodices with off shoulder necklines. They carried colonial bouquets of Nile green daisies and wore matching floral headpieces. The flower girls wore tulle dresses of Nile green color.

The bridegroom chose his father as his best man, and as groomsmen Tony Reith and James Straughan. Robert Fayard and Robert Keith were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue nylon gown with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Farr, mother of the bridegroom, also chose navy with contrasting accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and members of the family, and a reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

Attending the wedding from Bay St. Louis were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reinike, Mrs. Frank Trapani, Miss Bonnie Rapier, Miss Patsy Favre, Miss Geri Martin, Theo Morel and Lucias Pucheu. From New Orleans were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Prestarius, Mrs. James Straughan Sr., James Straughan Jr., Mrs. Lillian Leblatt, and Herman Farr and from New Iberia, La., were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Corley and son, Hollie.

The marriage of Miss Margalo Damborino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Damborino to Mr. Perre Donald Quintini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quintini Sr., was celebrated Tuesday, May 24 at Our Lady of the Gulf Church at a 10:00 a.m. Mass. The church was beautifully adorned with white gladioli flanking the main altar and white satin ribbons marked the pews for the families of the young couple.

Miss Honorine Damborino was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an attractive summer frock, patio length, of embroidered or gandy in a pastel blue shade. She had a bandeau of blue taffeta in her hair and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Little Paula Sterneck, a cousin of the bride from Houston, Tex., was flower girl. She wore a ballerina length bouffant dress of pale blue, with a blue taffeta ribbon band in her hair, and carried a miniature bouquet of pink sweetheart roses.

Frank Quintini Jr. was best man.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage in the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was played by Prof. Hemmersbach, and during the ceremony Mrs. Theodore Thomas sang the Ave Maria, Panis Angelicus and during the Communion service she sang "Oh Lord I Am Not Worthy."

The bride was radiant in a gown of nylon tulle, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt. It was made over an underdress of white tulle. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with appliques of imported alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls. A design of the lace appliques was also worked into the skirt of the dress. She wore a finger tip length veil of illusion, held to her head by a Juliette cap of the lace with the pearls embroidered into it, and carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis blooms tied to white satin streamers.

A reception followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents on Union St.

The bride's table was laid with a linen embroidered and cutwork cloth and was centered with a four tiered wedding cake in a square shape. This was topped with a miniature wedding bell and a bride and groom, and was outlined with fresh white gladioli blossoms.

White tapers in silver candle holders flanked the cake, and petit fours and mints matching the design of the wedding cake were used on the table.

The home was attractively decorated with a profusion of gladioli and spring blooms.

Mrs. Damborino received the guests in a summer frock of pure silk in a french blue shade. She wore a corsage of white iris and accessories to match her dress. Mrs. Quintini, mother of the bridegroom assisted in receiving the guests. She chose for the occasion navy blue, with white accessories and also wore a white iris corsage. The young couple left by motor for a wedding trip. The bride wore a navy linen dress with white hat and navy accessories.

I am a believer in trying to establish for our county small industries, located in the country as well as in the municipalities, and I am not so much in favor of a county having one large industry whereby the economy of the county can be destroyed upon the loss or shut-down of one industry alone.

To those of you who do not know me personally, I am forty three years of age, and have been a resident of Hancock County all my life, and reside in Cedar Point, Bay St. Louis. I am married to Virginia Baxter, formerly of Logtown, Mississippi.

I will sincerely appreciate your vote, and wish to assure you that if elected, I shall strive for the betterment of Hancock County.

Sincerely yours,
EDWIN G. "ED" LARROUX

On the speedway

This year, a clean-lined convertible wearing Chevrolet colors is setting the pace at the world-famous Indianapolis "500." A breath-taking new Bel Air convertible with plenty of what it takes to justify a pace-setting role anywhere: Crisp, uncluttered styling and a way of whisking off NOW with the smooth, split-second surge of a new 180-h.p. "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (an extra-cost option anyone can enjoy).

Pacemaker on any road!

On the highway

Chevrolet's sizzling highway performance is being proved on stock car tracks everywhere. In the recent NASCAR® stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Chevrolet ran away from the other low-priced cars. In the one-mile straightaway run, the first two cars—and six of the first ten—were Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one! Come drive the "Turbo-Fire V8!"

Combine your new Chevrolet purchase with your vacation plans! Order a new Chevrolet through us, then pick it up at the plant in Flint, Michigan, so Chevrolet's built, if you like, and drive yours home. Chances are, you'll save a substantial share of your vacation travel costs!
